BRIXMOR

Let's find flexible space that fits your short-term needs

Launching a pop-up retail space or securing a short-term retail lease with Brixmor is designed to be simple and fast. We offer highly visible space in open-air shopping centers with built-in daily-needs traffic so you can get in front of customers fast. With flexible short-term options from one day up to one year, we make it easy to test a new concept, run a seasonal activation, or expand into new markets with temporary retail space that works on your timeline.

Why work with us

- Locations in major markets nationwide
- Flexible rent options
- Fast approvals so you can open quickly
- Simple license agreements (1 day to 1 year) & temp to perm
- High-visibility storefronts in active centers
- Ideal for testing new concepts or seasonal uses
- Easy multi-market rollout opportunities
- Convenient, ample parking for your customers

Our center is you

Fast Retail Launches

Pop-up Space

Short-term storefronts in open-air centers with high visibility, built in traffic and flexible terms from 1 day to 1 year+, ideal for testing concepts or launching seasonal or temporary retail.

High-Impact Activation

Outdoor Space

Use parking lots or common areas for events, sampling, markets, food trucks or mobile activations, supported by strong traffic, ample parking and flexible short-term agreements.

Brand & Media Placements

Partnerships

Temporary placements for sponsorships, vending, advertising, ATMs, film shoots and similar activations, with flexible terms and easy set up across multiple centers.
